

Site-Based Teams

Byram Hills Central School District
February 26, 2015

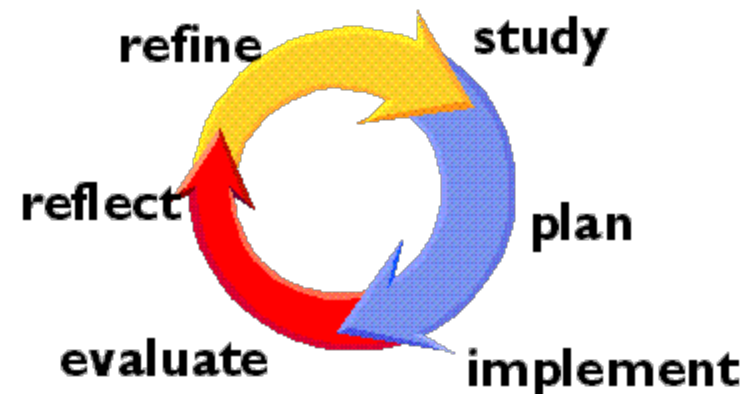

TEAM PLANNING

District-wide goals:

Character Education

- Sustainability
- Cultural Proficiency

Complete Survey

Why is Byram Hills Successful?

In a meta-analysis of schools with high levels of student success, Marzano found that these factors contribute to high student achievement:

- hunger for improvement
- helping people learn
- promoting excellence - pushing the boundaries of achievement
- putting students first

These school were characterized by a “professional and collegial” environment.

Other contributing factors -

- shared vision for student achievement and a plan to get there
- teacher participation in professional development; a commitment to the profession
- structured improvement activities
- caring attitude that extends to colleagues and students
- deep respect for lifelong learning

